WHNT NEWS 19 Early Morning, anchored by a morning veteran of our team, Robert Reeves, along with meteorologist Ben Smith bring the morning news and weather a half-hour earlier. This early AM decision is a trend that's sweeping the country and now the Tennessee Valley.

WHNT News 19 This Morning, with Anchors, Steve Johnson, Michelle Stark and Meteorologist Ben Smith, morning traffic tie-ups and construction by 99.9 FM's Nate Adams. They bring the news, weather and traffic Monday-Friday with concerns that are most important to viewers in the Huntsville/Florence/Decatur DMA. Topics include education, race, economy, crime, road construction updates, politics, government and health.

WHNT News 19 at Noon is a half-hour program Mon.-Fri. with anchors Michelle Stark, Carrie Marchese, and Steve Johnson, which includes many interviews with local area elected officials, government and civic leaders. Topics such as education, race, economy, crime, politics, government and health are often discussed. The duration of interviews is usually 5-7 minutes. WHNT has teamed up with the Better Business Bureau and does a news segment every Tuesday and interviews Michelle from the BBB.

WHNT News 19 at 5 & 6 each lasts half an hour and covers the days news interests. Anchors include Elise Morgan, Clarissa Stephens, Greg Screws, Jerry Hayes, and Meteorologist Dan Satterfield. They bring the news, sports, weather and traffic Monday-Friday with concerns that are most important to viewers in the Huntsville, Florence, Decatur DMA. Topics include education, race, economy, crime, road construction updates, politics, government and health.

WHNT News 19 at 9 is nightly news that lasts 30 minutes. Monday through Friday Anchors include Clarissa Stephens, Greg Screws and Meteorologist Dan Satterfield. This newscast is designed to give the Tennessee Valley viewers an option to watch late, local news at a time period that is more conducive to working families. The newscast has features that are unique to this broadcast such as no wait weather. Each night, we select a current news topic and take a closer look at details that are not generally revealed in other evening newscasts. The segment is interactive and viewers can chime in with their opinion and thoughts on a varity of subjects.

WHNT News 19 at 10 is nightly news that lasts approximately 35 minutes. Monday through Friday Anchors include Elise Morgan, Jerry Hayes and Meteorologist Dan Satterfield. Weekend Anchors include Carson Clark and Meteorologist Alan Raymond.

They bring news and weather and traffic with concerns that are most important to viewers in the Huntsville/Florence/Decatur DMA. Topics include education, race, economy, crime, road construction updates, politics, government and health.

Quarterly FCC Report

1st Quarter 2011 - WHNT'S COVERAGE OF ISSUES WERE:

Bowl Championship Series Special – January 7

WHNT NEWS 19 produced a special 30-minute program spotlighting Auburn University's road to the national championship game in Glendale, Arizona, versus University of Oregon.

Winter Weather Coverage – January 9-10

Over this two-day period, parts of the Tennessee Valley received more than a foot of snow. That accumulation closed most schools in our area for a week, caused treacherous driving conditions and impacted the local economy.

Governor Inauguration – January 17

On January 17, we carried the parade and inauguration of our newest Governor Robert Bentley on WHNT2 and on WHNT.com. WHNT NEWS 19 was the only station in our market to make the full inauguration available to the public.

State of the City Address - January 21

On January 21, we carried the Madison Mayor's State of the City Address on WHNT2 and whnt.com. Again, WHNT NEWS 19 was the only station in the Tennessee Valley to provide this civic service.

National Championship Celebration – January 22

Auburn University won the 2011 Bowl Championship Series National Championship. Fans of the Tigers gathered on the campus to welcome home the national championship football team. WHNT NEWS 19 provided live coverage on air and online of the team's homecoming and fan reaction.

HD Launch – February 2

On this date, WHNT NEWS 19 made the switch from standard definition to high definition broadcasting. We produced several stories showcasing and explaining the viewer benefit of the technical upgrade as well as historical context. We also hosted a party on February 1 for about 100 invited guests to give them a sneak peak of our new HD studio before the launch the next morning.

National Signing Day – February 2

National signing day is the day when high school senior athletes sign their letters of intent indicating which college their committing to attend and play their respective sports. On this date, the WHNT NEWS 19 sports team provided coverage of at least 15 local student athletes signing their letters of intent.

Discovery Middle School Shooting Anniversary – February 5

During the week leading up to this date, we produced several stories related to the anniversary of the deadly middle school student that claimed the life of a 13-year-old. We updated the status of the case against the teenager accused in the shooting. We also spotlighted the progress the school has made in protecting students. And, we showcased an anti-bullying project students participated in to teach students tolerance and alternatives to violence.

Media & Government Panel: Leadership Class 24 – February 9

On this date, News Director, Denise Vickers, participated in a Media & Government panel as part of the Huntsville-Madison County Leadership Class. The topic focused on the role of the media as a "watchdog" for the community.

UAHuntsville Shooting Anniversary – February 12

In the week leading up to this date, we produced several stories related to the anniversary of the shooting that killed 3 UAHuntsville employees. We provided updates on shooting survivors, the status of the case against the accused shooter, former professor Amy Bishop, and we showcased how the university reflected and honored those impacted by the tragedy.

Toomer's Trees Poisoned – February 15

On this date it came to light that someone poisoned the centuries old live oak trees on the campus of Auburn University. The trees are the historic gathering place of Auburn University students and fans following sports victories – especially football. The crime came to light after an anonymous person called a popular sports radio program and admitted on air he had poisoned the trees. The next day agents and officers from multiple agencies arrested Harvey Almorn Updyke in connection with the tree poisoning case. Updyke is a fan of Auburn's biggest rival – the University of Alabama Crimson Tide.

Shuttle Discovery Launch – February 24

NASA is retiring the space shuttles in 2011. Thousands of Tennessee Valley jobs are directly or indirectly ties to the shuttle program. WHNT NEWS 19 always provides live coverage of each shuttle launch and landing. The Shuttle Discovery launch on this date is one of the last 3.

Tornado Warnings – February 24 & 28

The WHNT NEWS 19 team warned the community of the pending danger with continuous wall-to-wall coverage of potentially damage severe weather. In February, we had two bouts of tornado warnings - one on February 24 (10pm-1am) and one on February 28 (noon-2pm). The one on February 28 killed a man in Franklin County, TN.

Fake Bath Salts – February 10

On this date, WHNT NEWS 19 produced a hidden camera investigation into the latest drug trend – fake bath salts. It's popular among teenagers especially because they could be purchased legally. Fake bath salts are typically snorted to get high and can be lethal. Days after our special report aired, lawmakers banned fake bath salts in Alabama and started raiding stores where they were previously sold legally.

Social Media & National Security - February 14

Redstone Arsenal is the US Army installation in Huntsville, Alabama. Experts say that because of the type of work Redstone does, it is a terrorist target. On this date, WHNT NEWS 19 aired a special investigative report on how social media could threaten national security. Surprisingly, the Arsenal does not ban its employees from using social media programs like Facebook and Twitter.

Heaven is Real – February 25

On this date, WHNT NEWS 19 produced a special report about a little boy who claimed he went to heaven in a near-death experience. He described heaven in vivid detail and claims to have met Jesus, his unborn sister and his grandfather while there. The boy and his father have written a book which is on the best-seller lists. We also talked to a local minister about the boy's claims. Our story got picked up and was re-aired on the nationally syndicated Rick & Bubba radio show.

Flip or Jip – February 28

We produced a hidden camera report exposing the questionable tactics of a reality tv star promoting 3 days of free seminars in our area where you're supposed to learn how to become a real estate millionaire. It's a bait & switch scheme where you are then asked to spend $3,000 to really "learn the secrets."

State of the State Address - March 1

On this date, WHNT NEWS 19 carried Governor Robert Bentley's State of the State address live on WHNT2 and whnt.com. We followed the address with independent political analysis from Dr. Jess Brown, a politics and government professor from Athens State University.

FBI Citizen's Academy – March 22

WHNT NEWS 19 News Director, Denise Vickers, and WHNT NEWS 19 Investigative Reporter, Carrie Marchese, were accepted into and began taking part in the FBI Citizens Academy. It's a 9-week course that gives citizens greater insight into the role of the FBI today and how it's evolved over the decades. Subject matter ranges from terrorism to fraud and much more. Their participation will culminate in a series of special reports that will air in May.

Tornado Warnings – March 23 & 26

The WHNT NEWS 19 team warned the community of the pending danger with continuous wall-to-wall coverage of potentially damage severe weather. Two different outbreaks in March presented major dilemmas for our station because the severe weather hit during popular CBS programming (original episode of Survivor on March 23 & NCAA Elite 8 Championship Coverage on March 26). Public safety is our top priority so we provided the severe weather coverage while staffers behind-the-scenes handled complaint calls and emails from viewers who weren't in the path of the severe weather and wanted to see programming.

UAHuntsville Basketball Team in NCAA tourney – March 23

The WHNT NEWS 19 sports team travelled to Springfield, Massachusetts, to cover the University of Alabama-Huntsville's basketball team in the NCAA Division II basketball championship tournament. They made it to the Elite 8 in DII. The team's championship quest came to an end on this date in a nail-biter game when they lost to Minnesota State University-Mankato.

Sketch the Sky – January 26, February 8, March 8

The 2nd Tuesday of every month, we host a Sketch the Sky party at Sci-Quest, the local hands-on science museum. Children whose drawings of the weather were featured on air get to come to the museum for a pizza party and our Chief Meteorologist, Dan Satterfield, broadcasts the weather live for our 5 & 6pm newscast from the event. Kids get to ask questions about science and meteorology and are featured on the air.

Weather in the Tennessee Valley Classroom Project - Ongoing

In the 1st quarter of 2011, we continued our comprehensive Weather in the Tennessee Valley Classroom Project. The cornerstone of the project is a weather booklet that is filled with weather information, educational games and content. Hundreds of FREE copies of the booklet are distributed to schools and home schools across the Tennessee Valley. Another element is a daily weather question and answer in our morning newscast which we call, "Weather 101."

60 MINUTES

01/02/11

"Bad Medicine" - an interview with Cheryl Eckard, a former quality control manager for GlaxoSmithKline, the pharmaceutical company. In 2002, she discovered numerous serious drug manufacturing flaws at a Glaxo plant in Cidra, Puerto Rico. She informed her superiors, but no corrections were implemented. Eight months later, she sent a detailed report of the ongoing problems to seven executives. Within weeks, she was dismissed, supposedly because of downsizing. She then turned the same information over to the FDA, and her lawyers filed suit under the federal whistle-blower law. Glaxo pleaded guilty to a felony, and eventually paid $750 million to settle the criminal conviction and Eckard's suit. Also includes comments by: Ian McCubbin, a Glaxo senior vice president; Dr. Jerry Avorn, Harvard Medical School; Neil Getnick, a lawyer for Cheryl Eckard. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Denise Schrier Cetta) "Wynton" - an interview / profile of Wynton Marsalis, classical and jazz trumpeter and leader of the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra, as the group travels to London, England and Havana, Cuba. Also includes comments from Orchestra members Carlos Henriquez (bass player); Ali Jackson (drummer); Walter Blanding (saxophone); Ted Nash (saxophone); Victor Goines (saxophone). (C: Morley Safer - P: David Browning, Diane Beasley) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT Andy Rooney Topic: "How Andy Celebrates New Year's Eve" - Andy doesn't think it's necessary to go out and have fun on New Year's Eve

01/09/11

"The Big Gamble" - a report on the proliferation of gambling casinos to 38 states, and their main attraction, the slot machine -- the new versions of which can be, according to some experts and users, highly addictive. Includes comments by: Natasha Schull, professor of anthropology, MIT; Sandi Hall, gambling addict; Marilyn Lancelot, gambling addict; Howard Shaffer, director, Harvard Medical School Division on Addictions; Dr. Robert Breen and Dr. Henry Lesieur, gambling addiction specialists, Rhode Island Hospital; Governor Ed Rendell (D-PA); Les Bernal, head of Stop Predatory Gambling, a national organization; State Senator Sue Tucker (D-MA). (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Ira Rosen, Joel Bach)

Includes commentary by Dr. Alan Rabinowitz, the world's foremost authority on jaguars and CEO of Panthera, a new conservation group; Dr. Tom Kaplan, co-founder of Panthera; and Steve Winter, photographer. (C: Bob Simon - P: Tom Anderson)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

01/01/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Toxic" (9:00-10:00pm) - a followup to "Tracking A Killer" (OAD: 12/11/02). On December 2, 2000, 30-year-old Eric Miller died in a Raleigh, North Carolina hospital. Blood tests had revealed that he had been poisoned with arsenic. Police investigation discovered that Eric's wife, Ann, a chemist, was having an affair with Derril Willard, a biochemist who worked at the same company as she. On the day after police initially questioned him about Eric's death, Derril Willard committed suicide. Prior to doing so, he had a confidential conversation with his lawyer, Rick Gammon. Years passed -- and in the spring of 2004, the North Carolina Supreme Court ruled that Gammon must reveal what Willard had told him about Ann's role in Eric's murder. Gammon then revealed how Ann admitted to Derril Willard that she had injected a substance into Eric's IV bag...and Willard had told Gammon that he himself had never tried to kill Eric. Ann Miller was charged with Eric's murder. Because the District Attorney and the Miller family had misgivings about the outcome of a trial, Ann was offered a plea bargain: twenty-five years in prison for Eric's murder. She accepted. Among those interviewed are: Lieutenant Chris Morgan, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Doris and Versus Miller, Eric's parents; Pam Baltzell and Leeann Magee, Eric's sisters; Renee Henson, Ann Miller's college roommate; Deborah Regentin, detective, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Yvette Willard, widow of Derril Willard; Michael Teague, forensic psychologist; Rick Gammon, attorney for the late Derril Willard. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Patti Aronofsky) (OAD: 03/14/09; 1st Rebroadcast: 07/17/10)

01/01/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Who Knew Too Much" (10:00-11:00pm) - a report on the 1992 murder of 19-year-old Mischelle Lawless, whose bloodied body was found in an abandoned car on a desolate strip of highway in Benton, Missouri. As Deputy Sheriff Rick Walter was working on the crime scene, a local man, Mark Abbott, reported that he had seen the young woman in her car, and also told investigators that he saw a white car driving near the crime scene. Police questioned Lawless' boyfriend, Leon Lamb, but could find nothing to tie him to the crime, and he passed a polygraph. Four months into the investigation, investigators got a break: 17-yearold Joshua Kezer had been held briefly in the county jail on assault charges, where, according to several inmates, he confessed to killing Lawless. Then Mark Abbott identified Kezer from a photo lineup as the driver of the white car he had seen near the crime scene. Police then charged Kezer with first-degree murder. During the trial, a young woman, Chantelle Crider, identified Kezer as having been at a party where he had words with Mischelle. However, no DNA, fingerprints or murder weapon linked Kezer to the scene. Nevertheless, Kezer was convicted and sentenced to 60 years in prison. The case haunted Rick Walter and in 2005, now sheriff, he reopened the case. Soon the foundation on which Kezer's conviction was built began to crumble, as witnesses admitted to lying and evidence was questioned. Judge Richard Callahan agreed to review the case and was so disturbed by what he saw that instead of ordering a new trial, he declared Josh Kezer an innocent man. But someone killed Mischelle and high on the list of suspects is that local man, Mark Abbott, who was once a star witness for the prosecution. In fact, there are two Abbotts, Mark and his identical twin Matt. To this day, Walters is not sure which Abbott brother came in to report finding Mischelle, and two people in the office say that it was his brother Matt. Leon Lamb also remains a suspect. With the help of forensics experts at a "crime farm" in the Netherlands, who have examined DNA evidence. Walters hopes further investigation will allow him to bring the case to a grand jury. On screen text graphic update: Josh Kezer is suing former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. Onscreen text graphic update for 01/01/11: Josh Kezer sued Scott County and former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. They settled the case for several million dollars. Interviewed: Sheriff Rick Walter; Joshua Kezer; Melissa Gaines, Mischelle's best friend; Mark Abbott; Jason Lawless, Mischelle's brother; Leon Lamb; Valerie Eubanks, Mischelle's sister; Esther Lawless, Mischelle's mother; Chantelle Crider; Brandon Caid, investigator; Dawn Pierce, host of the party; Jane Williams, church volunteer at the Missouri State Prison; Judge Richard Callahan; Ron Burton, friend of Mark Abbott; Richard and Selma Eikelenboom, Dutch forensics experts. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Peter Henderson, Mead Stone, Michael Rosenbaum, Joshua Yager) (OAD: 03/13/10)

01/08/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Fatal Choice" - On August 16, 2009, 56-year-old Sandra Franklin called police to report a violent confrontation with her husband at their Bainbridge, Ohio, horse ranch. Shortly after, authorities received a call from the victim himself, Dr. Peter Franklin, who had been stabbed in the chest. Within hours, Peter was dead and his wife was charged with murder. Shortly after their marriage in 2000, Sandra had fired Peter's longtime office manager and taken over the job herself. Peter then dropped his malpractice insurance, no longer accepted health insurance and moved his assets to Sandra in case he was sued. He also switched from family medicine to pain management and, according to law enforcement officials, dispensed an alarming amount of drugs and generated a lot of cash. His office was raided by State drug investigators in 2009, but no arrests were made. Sandra claims the stress of the investigation caused Peter to become violent. They were on the brink of divorce. Peter demanded his assets back and Sandra refused. During one of their many arguments, Sandra claimed that Peter threatened her life with a pen knife which he kept on his key chain. During the argument she grabbed a large knife from their kitchen and she stabbed Peter. She claimed it was self defense. She had scratches on her body, but the police believed they were self-inflicted. Sandra was charged with murder. Her trial began nine months after Peter's death. Her defense attorney said Sandra acted in self defense. After four days of deliberation, Sandra was found guilty of murder. At her sentencing three weeks later, Sandra still professed herself to be innocent of all charges. The judge gave her the mandatory sentence of fifteen years to life. Onscreen graphics: Sandra Franklin never collected on her husband Peter's life insurance policy. That policy and his estate, worth $1.5 million, went to his niece and nephew. Sandra Franklin will be eligible for parole in 2025. She will be 72. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Body of Lies" - In the fall of 2006, after two failed relationships that resulted in the birth of her daughters Ashlyn and Tyler, 31-year-old Leisha Hurst seemed to be getting her life on track. While attending Barstow College, studying to become a teacher, she began dating fellow student, 34-year-old Jeami Chiapulis, who bragged about being a war hero and cancer survivor. Chiapulis seemed to be the man she could finally settle down with. The couple had plans to marry when Hurst vanished on January 22, 2009. The next day, Hurst's abandoned car was found 50 miles south of her Barstow, California home, in the town of Hesperia. After denying he and Leisha were in a relationship, Chiapulis admitted to investigators that he was married to Army Lieutenant Colonel Katherine Taylor. He was also involved in a relationship with another Barstow student, Joyce Fransson. When searching his home, police found receipts for items he had recently purchased that could be used in disposing of a body. Leisha's brother took a photograph of rubber gloves and a shower cap that he found near the location of his sister's disappearance. He gave the photograph to the police and the gloves and shower cap to Chiapulis. Chiapulis then gave the gloves and a shower cap to the police. They compared them to the photograph and realized that he had given them a different pair of gloves and a different colored cap. Chiapulis had checked himself into a mental ward; upon checking himself out, he was arrested by the police. Leisha's body had still not been found and the police realized they might be forced to make a deal with Chiapulis to recover her body. In exchange for a reduced sentence, Chiapulis would admit to killing Leisha and reveal where he had buried her body. Her body was recovered on October 8, 2009 and Chiapulis was sentenced to fifteen years to life in prison. He implicated his girlfriend Joyce Fransson, telling the police she was with him when he buried Leisha. Fransson admitted she was with him when he buried a trash can in the desert, but she denied knowing its contents. She was brought to trial on July 26, 2010. After one day of trial, the judge unexpectedly offered her a plea deal, which she accepted. Onscreen graphics: While in prison, Jeami Chiapulis allegedly tried to hire a hitman to kill Joyce Fransson, Detective Keith Libby and Leisha Hurst's two daughters. Chiapulis will face murder-for-hire charges next month. Police say his wife, Army hero Lieutenant Colonel Katherine Taylor, had no knowledge of his double life. She annulled the marriage in December 2009. Ashlyn and Tyler are being raised separately by their fathers. Interviewed: Lynn Hurst, Leisha's father; Debbie Welch, Leisha's mother; Ashlyn and Tyler, Leisha's daughters; Detective Keith Libby from the Barstow Police Department; Jaime Tatro, who once dated Jeami Chiapulis; Joyce Fransson, Jeami's girlfriend; District Attorney Sean Daugherty. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Temptation" - In June 2007, Dewayne Barrentine, a single father with an 8-year old son met Tausha Fields, a single mother with a 5-year-old daughter, Lexie, and soon after they began living together in Marianna, Florida. Tausha told him some unbelievable stories about herself - that she had a criminal justice degree and a promised inheritance from a Federal judge. He went online to verify her stories and found a marriage certificate which showed she had been married to Mitchell Wayne Kemp. His online searching also led him to one of Tausha's previous boyfriends, Keith Jones, who said Tausha told him she had lured one of her ex-husbands to a farm where he was murdered. Barrentine continued his online investigations and discovered that Mitchell Wayne Kemp had been missing since August 2004. He brought this information to the police and they believed they were dealing with a homicide. They brought Tausha in for questioning and at first she denied knowing about Kemp's whereabouts. Eventually she said that Kemp had been murdered by another of her ex-husbands, Greg Morton. She helped them search Morton's farm and they uncovered Kemp's body. An autopsy revealed that he had been shot six times in the chest. The police believed that Tausha was involved in his murder. Three weeks later police arrested Morton and charged him with first degree murder. They were hoping he would implicate Tausha. He remained silent. Fearing Tausha might run, they arrested her also and charged her with first degree murder. She claimed that Morton shot Kemp in a jealous rage, and Morton claimed that it was Tausha's idea and that she had planned the murder so she could have full custody of Lexie. In return for a reduced sentence to second-degree murder, Morton agreed to testify against Tausha at her July 2010 trial. The trial hinged on the word "lure" which was used in testimony by Tausha's ex-boyfriend Keith Jones. After eight hours of deliberation, the jury found Tausha guilty of first degree murder. She will spend the rest of her life in prison. Onscreen text graphic: Mitch's brother and his family are legal guardians of Lexie. Tausha Fields is appealing the verdict. Greg Morton will be eligible for parole in 2024. He will be fifty-six years old. Interviewed: Dewayne Barrentine and Keith Jones, Tausha's ex-boyfriends; Tausha Fields; Lou Roberts, police chief in Marianna, Florida; Carole, Tracy and Michelle Kemp, Mitch's mother, brother and sister; Dave Wilson, detective in the Boone County Sheriff's Department; Prosecutors Richard Hicks and Andrea Hayes; Public defender Paul Hood, Tausha's attorney; Jamie Bowden, a neighbor of Greg Morton and Tausha; four unidentified jurors. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Every Picture Tells a Story" - On February 15, 2009, Cathy McNaughton was stabbed to death in her home in Sharpsburg, Georgia. The day had started with her husband Alec serving her breakfast in bed. He said he then went to visit his mother in Sandy Springs, Georgia, about an hour away. When he returned home, he says he found his wife in a pool of blood. As the victim's husband, he was a suspect, but he had an alibi. Another suspect was Cathy's former husband, Gary Mendenhall, who had been in town that day. He also had an alibi. Alec claimed to be at his mother's house until the evening. He said that he had called Cathy at 2:30PM from his mother's house, but records showed the call originated from a cell phone tower only two miles from his house in Sharpsburg. He also claimed that he made a 911 call while kneeling down next to Cathy's body, but he had no blood on him. Alec's friends and family members started calling police to say they were afraid of him and that he was abusive. Alec's first wife, Linda, said he had beaten her and that is why they were divorced. Police discovered a secret file about Alec that Cathy kept in the closet. There were disposable cameras with pictures of a bruised and battered Cathy. Alec was arrested, but the prosecutor could not show these pictures to the jury until they found the photographer. Their investigation led them to Sandra Harmon, who had been a counselor at Delta Airlines where Cathy had worked. Cathy told her that Alec had attacked and beaten her the day before, and she asked Sandra to take pictures of her injuries. Prosecutors were now able to present these pictures as evidence. Another previous wife said that Alec had pulled a shotgun on their daughter and threatened to kill their daughter, her and himself. During the trial Alec took the stand and denied everything his accusers said about him. The jury found him guilty of murder and he was stunned by the verdict. Onscreen text graphic: Alec McNaughton was sentenced to life in prison. McNaughton is now represented by a public defender and is planning an appeal. Interviewed: Criminal investigator Jason Fetner: Michelle and Heather Mendenhall, Cathy's daughters; Alec McNaughton; Prosecutor Kevin McMurry; Linda McNaughton, Alec's ex-wife; Sandra Harmon, counselor who took the pictures of Cathy; Michael Kam, Alec's defense attorney. 02/13/11

"New Age Revolution" - an interview, conducted in Cairo, Egypt, with Wael Ghonim, Google's regional marketing manager for the Middle East. He created a Facebook page called "We Are All Khaled Said" (a reference to an Egyptian internet activist beaten to death by the police), where Egyptians could post information about their experiences of police brutality. Organizers began to interact online, posting the dates and locations of protests, and a movement was born. With the communication and coordination made possible by the internet and social media -- Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Google -- the movement grew rapidly and exponentially, and finally forced the resignation of President Hosni Mubarak and his regime. (C: Harry Smith - P: Harry A. Radliffe II, Tom Anderson, Andy Court)

"The 33" - interviews with three of the thirty-three Chilean miners who were rescued in October 2010 after being trapped underground for nearly ten weeks. ### 48 HOURS MYSTERY

02/05/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Thou Shalt Not Kill" (9:00-10:00pm) - a report on the November 1994 murder of Farah Fratta, whose body was discovered in the garage of her Humble, Texas home. She had been shot twice in the head. At the time of her death, Farah was in the midst of a divorce. To the outside world, her husband Bob Fratta was an upstanding citizen, who worked in public safety as both a police officer and a fireman. But divorce documents were about to make his dark side public, revealing his strange sexual requests that not only embarrassed Farah, but also sickened her. Bob Fratta seemed the likeliest suspect in his wife's murder, but he had a seemingly airtight alibi: he was at church with their three children as his wife was being murdered. Investigators worked to build their case against Fratta, and four months later they got an unexpected break. Tracing his phone records from the night of his wife's murder led them to a mysterious woman, Mary Gipp, who claimed that she could have prevented Farah's murder. She knew that her boyfriend had been hired by Fratta to kill his wife. Informed by police that she would be charged with murder, she made a deal and was given immunity for her testimony. Her boyfriend, Joe Prystash, had been hired by Fratta to arrange the murder and Prystash had hired Howard Guidry to be the trigger man. Guidry and Prystash were arrested and confessed. Fratta was arrested and charged with murdering his wife. After the trial, it took less than one hour to convict him. He was sentenced to death, along with Prystash and Guidry. Thirteen years after the murder, a federal judge threw out Fratta's conviction and ordered a new trial because the judge said there was testimony linking Fratta to the murder that should never have been admitted. At the new trial, after two days of jury deliberation, Fratta was found guilty of capital murder. The jury decided to send Fratta back to death row. He now plans to appeal his conviction. Interviewed: Lex and Betty Baquer, Farah's parents; Kitty Waters Sneed, Farah's co-worker and closest friend; Detective Larry Davis; Bradley, Daniel and Amber Baquer, Farah and Bob Fratta's children; Mike Edens and Jimmy Podhorsky, who worked out at the gym with Fratta; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; Mary Gipp, Prystash's girlfriend; social worker Judy Cox; Mike Charlton, Fratta's; Denise Bradley and Mia Magness, prosecutors for the second trial; Randy McDonald and Vivian King, Fratta's attorneys for the second trial. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Dog Trainer, the Heiress and the Bodyguard" (10:00-11:00pm) - Part one of a two part report on the October 2009 death of Mark Stover, a professional dog trainer. Recently divorced from Linda Opdycke, Stover still operated their lucrative business, "Island Dog Adventures" on Kiket Island, Washington, which they had founded in the early 1990's. Linda, now living elsewhere in Washington state became involved with Michiel Oakes, a weapons expert she had originally hired to analyze her security situation, based upon the fact that Mark had been charged with stalking Linda ever since she initiated their separation. In 2009, Mark moved his dog training business to Anacortes, Washington. Linda and Michiel, now romantically involved, believed that Stover was obsessed with their relationship, as well as with the children from Michiel's previous marriage. On the morning of October 28, 2009, an employee of Mark's arrived at his business and discovered traces of blood in the driveway, Mark's white station wagon missing, and Mark's dog Dingo, shot three times in the face. Based upon a report of trespassing involving two vehicles, one a white station wagon, the other a black SUV, police apprehended the SUV, only to find the driver was Michiel Oakes. The following day, Michiel was arrested at Linda's home on suspicion of murder, after he attempted to dispose of a pistol. Interviewed: Andrea Franulovich, client and friend of Mark's; Vickie Simmons, Mark's sister;

Linda Opdycke, Mark's ex-wife; Nancy Corbin, Linda's mother; Danny Jensen, man who claims that Mark threatened him with a gun; Sheriff Frank Rogers; Chief Deputy Dave Rodriguez; Ruthie Hagemeister, Linda's neighbor; Julia Simmons, Mark's niece; Michiel Oakes; Amanda Oakes, Michiel's daughter; Teresa Vaux-Michael, Mark's fiancée; Leigh Hearon, private investigator; Amber Baker and Stephanie Poor, Mark's employees; Tami Gilden, Mark's neighbor; Jennifer Thompson, Michiel's ex-wife; Sergeant Gene Davis. 02/12/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Dog Trainer, the Heiress and the Bodyguard" - Part two of a two part report on the October 2009 death of Mark Stover, a professional dog trainer. Michiel Oakes was charged with the murder of Mark Stover. Michiel claimed that Mark had invited him to his house on October 28, 2009 and that the shooting was in self-defense because Mark pulled a gun on him. After the shooting, Michiel removed Mark's body from his house and drove to the home of his ex-wife, Jennifer Thompson. Jennifer told police that Michiel implied that he had been hired by someone as a hitman to kill someone. Linda Opdycke briefly spoke to police the night Oakes was arrested, but the next day she refused to answer any questions on the advice of her attorney. Oakes was freed on bail, he and Linda were forbidden by court order to see each other or communicate. During the trial, Oakes testified in his own defense. Linda Opdycke testified that Mark Stover could be very dangerous. During her testimony, prosecutors told her if Oakes was found to be acting in self-defense, then she herself would not have any liability. Linda told them that she did not have any liability in this case. Prosecutors have never charged her with any crime. After four days of deliberation, the jury came to a unanimous verdict. Michiel Oakes was found guilty of premeditated murder. He was given the maximum sentence of 26 years, with no chance of parole. The case is still open and Linda Opdycke has not been charged with being an accomplice. Onscreen graphics: Vickie Simmons has posted a $50,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of accomplices in her brother's murder. Michiel Oakes is appealing his conviction. Stover's dog, Dingo, survived her gunshot wounds, but died months later of cancer. Interviewed: Dan Luvera, lead detective; Vickie Simmons, Mark Stover's sister; Leigh Hearon, private investigator; Linda Opdycke; Amanda and April Oakes, Michiel's daughters; Corrie Oakes, Michiel's mother; Michiel Oakes; Stephanie Poor, employee of Mark; Jennifer Thompson, Michiel's ex-wife; Julia Simmons, Mark's niece; Teresa Vaux-Michael, Mark's fiancée; John Henry Brown, defense attorney; Rich Weyrich, prosecutor; Meghan Mataya, employee of Mark; Jurors Heidi Toussint, Tom Jenkins; Judge Mike Reichardt. 02/19/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Playing with Fire" - In the early morning hours of September 2, 2002, two young men were found executed in a burning Mercedes SUV in an upscale North Hollywood, California neighborhood. The victims were Michael Tardio, 35, a part-time model and doorman at The Garden of Eden – at the time Hollywood's hottest nightclub – and his friend, 31-year-old Christopher Monson. What initially looked like a drug or gang-related murder, turned out to be something entirely different, but the crime scene left little forensic evidence to go on. Retired veteran Los Angeles Police Department Detective Bill Cox, who spent four years on the case learned that Tardio's girlfriend was Sandy Bentley, who along with her twin sister, was a former live-in girlfriend of Hugh Hefner at the Playboy Mansion. She was also an ex-girlfriend of Mark Yagalla, a former Wall Street hedge fund manager who was convicted of running a multimillion dollar Ponzi scheme. During her relationship with Yagalla, he gave her more than $6 million worth of expensive gifts. When federal officials came after these gifts, Bentley secretly kept $1 million worth of jewels and furs she was legally required to forfeit. Police believe that Tardio and Monson were murdered when Tardio set up a deal to sell the jewelry to an unidentified buyer. When Bentley was questioned by police, she initially denied the fact that Tardio and Monson were selling the jewelry. When threatened with a possible jail sentence, she told them the truth. The strongest lead police had was a telephone number Tardio gave to Bentley for Michael Jacobs, a convicted felon who was seen with Tardio at the Garden of Eden. Police believe he was the middle man in the jewelry transaction and the only person who knows the identity of the intended buyer, known only as "Mister Big". Jacobs has refused to give any information to the police or 48 HOURS. Authorities are hoping that viewers of this broadcast may provide a new lead that could help them in solving the case. Interviewed: Retired LAPD Detective Bill Cox; Andrew Blankstein of the Los Angeles Times; Izabella St. James, former girlfriend of Hugh Hefner; Mark Yagalla; Brian Bieber, Yagalla's lawyer; Michelle Braun, Internet madam; Mike Degnan, FBI Special Agent; Attorney Eugene Licker; Linda Kim, jewelry collector and international weapons broker; Chris O'Connell, 48 HOURS investigative producer. Onscreen graphics: The Los Angeles City Council has renewed a $75,000 reward for information leading to a conviction in this case. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chris O'Connell, Ira Sutow, Greg Fisher)

02/26/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Hunting Humans" - On July 29, 2007 Shea McDonough of Chelmsford, Massachusetts, returned home and left the back door open for her brother, not knowing he was spending the night at a friend's house. Hours later, her parents were startled by a sound coming from her room. They thought Shea was having a bad dream. When her father Kevin went to her room to check on her, he saw a large masked man standing over her with a knife at her throat. He jumped on top of him and they struggled and tumbled to the floor. His wife Jeannie came to the room and tried to grab the blade of the knife with her bare hand. Kevin told Shea to call 911. When the police arrived they were able to apprehend the intruder, Adam Leroy Lane, a trucker from North Carolina. A search of his truck revealed more weapons and a DVD about a serial killer, entitled "Hunting Humans". Police put out an APB to other police departments on the East Coast to see if there were similar incidents. Seventeen days before the attack on the McDonough family, a Pennsylvania woman, Darlene Ewalt, was murdered while talking on the phone on her front porch. Her husband Todd would become the prime suspect. One day before the attack on the McDonough family, Monica Massaro of Bloomsbury, New Jersey was murdered in her home, which was in the vicinity of a truck stop. Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble had seen the APB about Lane and contacted the police in Chelmsford. They told him they had found a receipt in Lane's truck from Bloomsbury, New Jersey. When Noble arrived in Chelmsford, he and his team inquired about the whereabouts of Lane's truck and were told that the rented truck had been returned to its owner, who threw Lane's possessions into a dumpster. They retrieved his personal property and sent it back to their forensic lab in New Jersey. Before they returned home, they questioned Lane, who realized they knew he had killed Monica Massaro so he eventually confessed to stabbing her. Several weeks after his knives were submitted to the forensic lab in New Jersey, the results showed that they contained DNA from Monica Massaro and Darlene Ewalt. This information exonerated Todd Ewalt. Lane reached a plea bargain in the McDonough case and was sentenced to 25-30 years in a Massachusetts state prison. For the murder of Monica Massaro, he was sentenced to serve 50 years in a New Jersey state prison. As part of another guilty plea deal, Lane was sentenced to life in prison for killing Darlene Ewalt. The McDonough family attended all of the sentencing hearings to support the other families. Jeannie McDonough wanted to know what would make someone like Lane start killing people and decided to write a book about it. Onscreen graphics: Adam Leroy Lane was convicted of assaulting another woman in Pennsylvania. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. Jeannie finished her book, "Caught in the Act". Narrated by: Shea, Jeannie and Kevin McDonough; Detective George Tyros of the Chelmsford Police Department; Todd Ewalt; Ed Marsico, Jr., District Attorney from Pennsylvania; Nicole Pogasic, Todd and Darlene Ewalt's daughter; Kerry Ahern, Assistant District Attorney from Massachusetts; Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble of the New Jersey State Police Department. Guests: Mark Phillips, CBS News Correspondent (1); Admiral Mike Mullen, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (2); Senator Richard Lugar (R-IN), Ranking Member, Foreign Relations Committee (3); David Martin, National Security Correspondent, CBS News (4); Scott Pelley, Correspondent, 60 MINUTES (5); Representative Ed Markey (D-MA); Energy and Commerce Committee (6)

- 1) Update from Libya, where Colonel Moammar Qaddafi continues his defiance, regardless of the bombing of key military targets by United States, French, and British forces
- 2) Topics include: successful establishment of a no-fly zone in order to protect Libyan civilians / Colonel Qaddafi's rejection by the international community, including the Arab League / role of other Arab countries in providing military forces / confirmation that Colonel Qaddafi has a significant storage of mustard gas / mission's focus on providing the requested support to the Libyan people from a humanitarian standpoint
- 3) Concern that American military involvement in Libya could result in requests for assistance from political movements against the governments of other Middle East countries, some of which may be American allies
- 4) Speculation as to how this mission in Libya will end and a report that the Arab League, though providing political support, is disappointed in the type of military operation undertaken to enforce the no-fly zone
- 5) Update from Tokyo detailing an estimated death toll from the tsunami at approximately twenty thousand people, an update on the condition of the nuclear reactors, and the "ghost town" feeling sensed twenty miles from the reactors -- eight miles beyond the exclusion zone imposed by the Japanese government
- 6) Topics include: call for a moratorium on the siting of new nuclear plants in earthquake-prone regions of the United States / recent deal in the House of Representatives granting the nuclear industry eighteen billion dollars of taxpayer guaranteed loans / belief that there has been an increase in transparency from the Japanese government / request to the Federal Drug Administration to begin monitoring food imports from Japan / based on the crisis in Japan, a call to implement Representative Markey's 2002 law, requiring potassium iodide to be made readily available to people in the ten to twenty mile radius around nuclear power plants

Guests: Elizabeth Palmer, CBS News Correspondent (1); Hillary Clinton, U.S. Secretary of State (2); Robert Gates, U.S. Secretary of Defense (2)

- 1) Update on the current political situation in Yemen, Syria, Jordan, and Libya
- 2) Topics include: statement that the United States will not enter the conflict in Syria, where demonstrators have been fired upon by the regime / reasoning behind the decision not to enter the dissension in Syria; emphasis on individually evaluating and analyzing the political unrest in each country, so as not to make sweeping conclusions about the entire region; current situation in Libya / explanation of the overall strategy between the United States and the coalition of Canadian, European, and Arab countries / praise for the success of the military mission / no decision regarding the possibility of arming the Libyan rebels / speculation as to the rebels' chances against Colonel Qaddafi's military; significance of the extraordinary and historic change that is taking place in the Middle East

03/05/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Shelley's Last Breath" - an investigation into the 1999 scuba diving death of Shelley Tyre while on vacation on the Caribbean isle of Tortola. Police questioned her husband and dive partner David Swain about every detail of the dive; autopsy results were inconclusive. Shelley, a school principal who, in the early 1990s, had met and married David Swain, a divorced father of two, who ran a dive shop, was an adventurous woman who couldn't care less about money. Her parents insisted on a pre-nuptial agreement and David Swain agreed he would receive no money if they divorced. With her death, he collected more than $600,000 from her estate. What her parents could not understand was Swain's lack of emotion regarding Shelley's death. He explained that he didn't know had happened to Shelley during the dive. Although divers are supposed to swim in pairs, she was diving alone – he had gone elsewhere in the water. One year after her death, her parents hired an attorney and sent him and his team of experts to Tortola to investigate. After several months, they uncovered evidence which they believed proved David Swain was lying. 48 HOURS hired an underwater forensic expert to examine the evidence; he also concluded that it was much more than a diving accident. Her parents believed that Shelley's decision to change jobs and take a substantial pay cut may have been the motive for murder. In 2006, they sued David Swain in civil court for wrongful death and won. Armed with this, the Tyres persuaded the authorities in Tortola to re-open the case: island prosecutors charged Swain with the murder of his wife. Ten years after Shelley's death and after two years in a Tortola prison, the trial began. Certain information about David Swain became public during the trial – his father had been convicted of sexual abuse and sent to prison. His mother was bludgeoned to death by his brother, Richard. This information, along with testimony from his children and ex-wife was used to explain his behavior. In the end, David Swain was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Onscreen graphics: David Swain is appealing on the grounds that defense experts were not allowed to testify. He is eligible for parole in 2032, when he will be 76 years old. Interviewed: David Swain; Jen Bloom and Jeremy Swain, David's children; Richard and Lisa Tyre, Shelley's parents; Don Badger, Shelley's co-worker; John Langella, David's friend and fellow scuba instructor; Sandy Wheeler, David's ex-wife; Jeff Morgan, San Bernardino, California Sheriff's Department; Keith Royle, dive boat captain; Bill

Oliver, scuba gear designer; Neil Tassel and Tim Bradl, David's defense attorneys; Jim Erickson, former Minneapolis assistant district attorney; Hayden St. Clair Douglas, local counsel working with David's defense team. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Jay Young, Patti Aronofsky, Sarah Prior) (OAD: 05/08/10)

03/12/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betting Her Life" - a followup to the original "Betting Her Life" (OAD: 05/15/10), which itself was a followup to "Right or Wrong" (OAD: 04/24/04; updated 01/01/08). This followup contains new and original footage from Susan Wright's new sentencing hearing, held in the fall of 2010. Susan Wright was a 27-year-old stay-at-home mother from Houston, Texas who stabbed her husband Jeff, 193 times. She claimed she was a victim of domestic abuse and that on January 13, 2003, her husband attacked her with a knife and she fought back in self-defense. Prosecutors charged that she was a cold-blooded killer who lured her husband to bed with the promise of sex, tied him up and then brutally murdered him. A jury found Susan Wright guilty of murder and sentenced her to 25 years in prison. Six years passed and new attorney Brian Wice took on her case, believing that Susan Wright deserved a new sentencing hearing because, he argued, prosecutor Kelly Siegler chose to inflame rather than inform the jury, and that Wright's original lawyers should have called more witnesses, including experts on battered women. Wice also had a new witness - Misty McMichael, a woman who was once engaged to Jeff Wright. Though she and Susan had never met, her story was very similar: both were topless dancers, and Misty also claimed that she was abused by Jeff Wright. Judge Wallace ordered a new sentencing hearing -- not to determine Susan's guilt, but to see if she might be given a sentence other than the 25 years she is now serving. In the fall of 2010, a more mature Susan Wright arrived for the hearing. Brian Wice handed the case over to a new lawyer, John Munier, who seeks to prove that Wright was a battered woman. The new prosecutors, Connie Spence and John Jordan, intend to prove that she killed Jeff Wright out of anger, not fear. A parade of witnesses are presented and for the first time, Wright's sister, Cindy Stewart, takes the stand. Her mother, Sue Wyche, also testifies; now a widow, Wyche admits that she lied at the original trial because she was afraid of the consequences from her husband if she admitted the truth. Misty McMichael also testified. The jury deliberated and the new sentence surprised everyone, because during deliberation, the jurors had asked about probation with community service, but instead, she is sentenced to twenty years, with credit for time served -- five years off of the original sentence. And then, finally, Susan Wright apologized to the Wright family. Onscreen graphics: Susan Wright's children, Bradley and Kaily, are now 12 and 9. They were adopted by Ron Wright, Jr. Susan Wright will be eligible for parole in 2014. She will be 38 years old. Interviewed: Susan Wright; Cindy Stewart, Susan's sister; Ron Wright, Jeff's father; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; medical examiner Dwayne Wolf; Attorney Brian Wice; Judge Jim Wallace; Dr. Jerome Brown, an expert on battered women; Misty McMichael. New interviews for the 03/12/11 followup: prosecutors Connie Spence, John Jordan; Cindy Stewart. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Clare Friedland, Jenna Jackson, Chuck Stevenson)

03/19/11

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "River's Edge" - On January 8, 2000, college students Danielle Keener and Dan Zapp were on a date, walking along a river's edge outside York, Pennsylvania, when they were kidnapped at gunpoint by a man in a pick-up truck. The gunman put Dan in the back of the truck with his Rottweiler dog; he put Danielle in the passenger seat, where he then raped her. Afterwards, he then put them both out of the truck, and ordered them to walk down towards the river. From behind, he then shot them both in the face. Feigning death, they floated down the river, out of the gunman's view. They were soon picked up by a hunter, Pete Prowell, who was able to contact the police and get them to a hospital. Dan -- on a respirator and unable to speak -- wrote on a notepad what he remembered of the gunman and gave the police the clues they needed to find him. Police then tracked down and arrested William Babner for the crime. Six months after the shooting. Babner went on trial; he was convicted and sentenced to one-hundred and seventeen and a half to two-hundred and thirty five years in prison. Includes narration by Danielle Keener; Dan Zapp; Pete Prowell, the couple's rescuer; Brent Keener, Danielle's father; Elizabeth Martin, Danielle's college roommate; Dr. John Hankle, attending physician, York Hospital; Detective Doug Demangone, York police; Police Chief Darryl Albright; Police Captain Roland Camacho; Ed Paskey, York County Prosecutor. ### 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

03/26/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Lost Night" - a followup to "Dream Killer" (OAD: 02/18/06). Kent Heitholt, the popular sports editor of The Daily Tribune in Columbus, Missouri was found bludgeoned and strangled near his car on Halloween night 2001. Two years later, 19-year-old Charles "Chuck" Erickson told a friend that he had a dream about his involvement in the crime. Although his memory of events was hazy, Erickson told police about events leading up to the murder and implicated his high school friend Ryan Ferguson. He said that he and Ferguson were out drinking the night of the murder and, when they ran out of money, decided to rob someone. According to Erickson, when he and Ferguson approached Heitholt, things got out of hand and Heitholt was killed in the struggle. Both Erickson and Ferguson were taken into custody and charged with murder. Four years after Heitholt's death, Ferguson, who claimed innocence, was tried for murder. The state's star witness was his former friend, Erickson, who claimed his involvement in the crime but maintained that Ferguson was the instigator. Found guilty of seconddegree murder and first-degree robbery, Ryan Ferguson was sentenced to 40 years in prison. He will be eligible for parole in 2040. The followup details the unceasing efforts of Ferguson's father, Bill, to prove his son's innocence. In the course of his determined investigation, Bill uncovered evidence that contradicted earlier testimony from Erickson. In addition, Erickson recanted his claim that Ferguson was the instigator and active participant. Janitor Jerry Trump, who initially claimed that he saw Erickson and Ferguson at the crime scene, also now recanted his testimony. That new information, along with the assistance of Kathleen Zellner, a new attorney who agreed to take the case pro bono after seeing an earlier airing of the story on 48 HOURS, helped to secure a new hearing. Onscreen graphics: The Missouri Attorney General's office will respond to the request for a hearing by May 2nd. Former prosecutor Kevin Crane, now a judge, expects to be called as a witness. Ethics rules prohibit him from commenting. Interviewed: Bill Ferguson, Ryan's father; Ryan Ferguson; Rus Baer, sports reporter for Columbia Missouri's newspaper The Tribune; Mike Boyd, part-time writer who was a witness; Shawna Ornt, janitor; Leslie Ferguson, Ryan's mother; Prosecutor Kevin Crane; Christine Varner, manager of the agency who employed janitor Jerry Trump; Kathleen Zellner, Ryan's new attorney. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman)
